MUNITION WORKERS' CALL TO CHURCHILL

OPEN SECOND FRONT NOW

DELAY MAY MEAN
DEFEAT

Men From Seven Factories
Stage Demonstration At 10 Downing Street

LONDON, July 26.
TEN LONDON MUNITION
WORKERS, FROM SEVEN NORTH-WEST LONDON FACTORIES
WENT TO 10, DOWNING STREET
TO-DAY AND PRESENTED TO THE PRIME MINISTER, A PETI-TION URGING THE GOVERN-MENT IMMEDIATELY TO OPEN
A SECOND FRONT.

ONE MEMBER OF THE DE-PUTATION SAID AFTERWARDS
THAT THE PETITION STATED THAT THE DELEGATES REPRE-SENTED 4,500 WORKERS.
THE PETITION DECLARED THAT A DELAY MIGHT MEAN DEFEAT AND HITLER COULD BE BEATEN THIS YEAR IF A SE-COND FRONT WERE OPENED
NOW.

THEY HAD FLEDGED THEM-SELVES IN THE PETITION, TO WORK UNTIRINGLY TO IN-CREASE PRODUCTION AND
MAKE THIS FRONT A SUCCESS.

Bevin's Admonition To Soviet Friends

PONTPOOL (Mouth-
shire), July 26.

Those who "scouted for a second front" were "feeding
Hitler and Goebbels," declared Mr.
Bevin, Labour Minister, speaking here to-day. "By creating division
in the country, our friends of the Left who shout this slogan
are creating the very condition, all we want to avoid. I beg those claiming to be Russia's special friends not to try to force a reply on an issue which might be a great contributing issue but is not the only one and not the only way to win the war." He believed that the Russians would hold Egypt and he was confident that Hitler would not break the Russian armies.
Mr. Bevin told miners "Do not talk to me about a second front
but help the Government all you can so there be no shortage anywhere. Every day we lie ahead of us. If everybody works with a will, victory is possible much sooner than ever seemed before."—REUTER.

THEATRE OF ALLIED SECOND FRONT?

WASHINGTON, July 26.

The president to the Austrian Throne, Archduke Otto, stated in a broadcast on Saturday night
that his people had kept alive
the spirit of resistance against the Nazis. They would continue to resist until Austria is free, he said.
"Austria which holds the key to Germany's supply lines and the communications of her occupied armies in south-east Europe and the Balkans is likely to be the theatre of the Allied second front operations," he continued.
"Ninety per cent of the people are waiting to cast off the yoke."
The Archduke was speaking on the eighth anniversary of the assassination of Dr. Dollfus, the Austrian Prime Minister.—

Nazi Pilots Land Near Berne

BERNE, July 26.

It is officially announced here
to-day that two Messerschmitts landed on an airfield near Berne last evening. The pilots had lost their way and were forced to land through lack of petrol.—REUTER.

TARGETS IN MANNERHEIM AMTSA, July 25.

R. A. F. Bombers flying singly
bombed targets in Mannerheim and Frankfurt in Germany today. It is officially announced.
Boston bombers also attacked
a chemical works at Sluis in Holland, and fighters on offensive patrols over Belgium destroyed nine railway locomotives. Four fighters are missing.

SIKH VIEW OF CONGRESS DECISION

AMRITSAR, July 25.

"The Congress campaign will be fatal to the Sikh cause, which has just gained a foot-hold in the politics of the country said Sardar

leader in a statement.—A. P.

NAZIS PIERCE ROSTOV DEFENCES

Dash Towards Volga & Northern Caucasus

PLAN TO BY-PASS TANK TOWN OF STALINGRAD

Fierce Battles Raging Along Don Valley

LONDON, July 26.

It is thought in London that a German drive to the Caucasus leaving Stalingrad in Russian hands may develop. The enemy move to firmly establish themselves across the Don is necessary and would be supported by an amphibian operation across the Black Sea.
This would necessitate adequate air cover.

The Russian successes at Voronezh have not driven back German lines to any great distance and operations at present seem almost at a stand still.

Difficulty of forming a reliable estimate of the position lies in the fact that there is little information here regarding the location of Soviet reserves.

VORONEZH BATTLE

MOSCOW, July 26.

The Moscow radio, to-night, said
that near the southern approaches to Voronezh, the Germans are suffering formidable losses, which are mounting as hours go by.

Incessant Nazi Attacks

Fighting is continuing on the right bank of the lower reaches of the Don river said the Moscow radio early to-day. The Germans attack incessantly with utter disregard for the tremendous losses inflicted on them.

Fighting For Crossings

In the Tsimlyanskaya area some German units succeeded in entrenching themselves on the south bank of the Don, according to the "Pravda." The Soviet troops are now engaged in liquidating them.
Heavy fighting for river crossings
in which the Germans were using large mechanised forces is still going on.
In their first attempt to cross
the river the whole of a German regiment was wiped out. Their second attempt also failed, heavy losses being inflicted on the Germans.
According to a front line dispatch, the Red Army troops have beaten back an attack by an entire German regiment on the Kalinin sector.

German Break-Through

In the Rostov area the Germans throwing into action large columns of tanks, are attempting with massive blows to break the resistance of the defenders of the city according to a supplement to the Soviet 'communique'.
The supplement continues: "Our troops are defending every position with great staunchness and inflicting heavy losses on the Germans. In one sector German tanks were destroyed by the fire of our artillery and tank destroyers.
On another sector our troops repelled three enemy attacks and annihilated about 800 Germans.
The enemy launched a fourth attack and threw into action
one regiment of infantry and about 50 tanks. The Germans succeeded in breaking through in one of the areas of our defence. Fierce fighting continues on the outskirts of the town.

On some sectors the Germans have penetrated the outskirts of the city. All day yesterday infantry and tank attacks followed in close succession and Soviet troops were forced further back.

DUISBURG HAS THIRD RAID

Largest River-port Set On Fire By R. A. F.: Enemy
Planes Over Br. Coast

LONDON, July 26.
Duisburg was raided by the R. A.
F. last night, it is officially announced. Fires were still burning this morning when single R. A.
F. bombers dropped bombs on the Ruhr in daylight. Fifteen aircraft
are missing.

There was some enemy activity
over an area near the English north-east coast last night. The attack was short. At one place some fires started and casualties
have been reported.

An Air Ministry 'communique' issued on Sunday states: "Last night a small number of enemy aircraft made a short attempt on an area on the north-east coast of England
where some damage was done.
Casualties, a small number of which were fatal, have been reported. Two enemy bombers were destroyed."

Nine 'Fockwulf' 190's were destroyed by Spitfires on offensive patrols over Northern France on Sunday afternoon. Three Spitfires
are missing.

"Block Bombs"

It is officially stated that over 54,000 pounds of bombs have been dropped on Duisburg. The Germans call these "block bombs"
because each brings down a whole block of buildings. A great load of other heavy high explosives and incendiaries has also been dropped.

A "great force" of Lancasters, Stirlings and Halifaxes plus many two-engine bombers carried out
this third raid in a week on Duisburg, the biggest river port in the world.

Fires were still burning there
at 8-30 this morning when aircraft were sent singly to bomb and reconnoitre the area. Smoke was still spreading over the Ruhr.
The Germans sent fighters against the raiders.

A Halifax pilot attacked by two fighters said: "I took violent evasive action diving from 13,000 to 4,000 feet. We saw no more of them."

Docks Still Burning

states:—

"A strong force of our bombers went to the Ruhr last night. Duisburg was the main objective. Aerodromes in the Low countries were also bombed.

Single aircraft which dropped bombs in the Ruhr in daylight this morning have reported that fires were still burning in the dock
and industrial areas in Duisburg.
During the night the Fighter Command aircraft destroyed two enemy bombers near their bases and attacked railways and other targets in occupied territory and enemy shipping off the French coast.

From these operations 14 aircraft of the Bomber Command
and one of the Fighter Command
are missing.

During the past week aircraft
of the Bomber Command have continued to lay mines in enemy waters. Two aircraft are missing from these operations."

Berlin Admits It

BERLIN: The German Official News Agency says "The British bombers, last night, again attacked the Rhenish Westphalian industrial area.—REUTER.

Importance across in two places.
The position of the Soviet forces is less favourable than on Friday.

A front line dispatch to the army newspaper "Red Star" states: "In nearly all sectors of the southern Don, particularly at Rostov and Tsimlyanskaya, big battles have developed.

The Germans are attempting to break through to the Volga
and the northern Caucasus.
Several fresh German divisions
have arrived"—REUTER.

JAPANESE ATROCITIES

Mass Murder, Rape, Pillage
And Use Of Poison Gas
To Terrorise China

CANBERRA, July 26.
Doctor Hsu Mo, Chinese Minister to Australia, protested in a speech here to-day, against the Japanese atrocities in China. He alleged that the Japanese were committing mass murder, rape
and pillage and were using poison gas.—REUTER.

Chinese Launch Sweeping Counter-Offensive

CHUNGKING, July 26.
The Chinese forces, in a sweeping counter-drive against the Japanese in East Kiangsi Province in south-east China, are making further progress, according to field
dispatches received here to-night.
In an attack on Linchuan, they reached a point less than two miles from the city.

Other Chinese forces battered their way to the suburbs of Tungsiang north-east of Lanchow.
Spirited fighting is now in progress.

PATRIOTIC BURMANS HIT BACK

LONDON, July 25.
Reports have been received of clashes between Patriotic Burmese and the Japanese. Clashes took place in the Akyab area between some Muslims and parties of the Communist Party.
This happened soon after the British troops withdrew from Akyab.—REUTER.

Allies Bomb Jap Base At Kulewa

NEW DELHI, July 26.

Air Headquarters Communiqué
states the enemy base at Kulewa
on the Chindwin was bombed by the R. A. F. on July 23 but weather conditions represented observation of the results. Anti-aircraft fire was encountered over the target.

On July 24 our aircraft bombed
and machine-gunned objectives at Singaung, on the Chindwin.

From these operations all our planes returned safely.—A. P.

Air Raid On Townsville

'Communique' from MacArthur's
headquarters:—

GONA: Allied bombers and fighters repeatedly attacked enemy supplies and positions. In attempted air interception by the enemy two of his planes were shot down and one damaged. One of our planes is missing.

LAE: In a night attack on an aerodrome Allied units scored hits
in the target area.

RABAU: Fifteen "Os" intercepted by an Allied reconnaissance unit and one enemy plane shot down and two damaged without loss to ourselves.

DARWIN: Enemy planes in light
force attacked early last night.
There were no casualties and only light damage. "This is the first time Townsville has been attacked from the air."

This is also the first time the Australian east coast has been bombed. The attack was probably made from New Guinea. An unidentified plane flew towards Townsville at a great height on May 1. The small merchant steamer "Macdhuil" was bombed and hit at Port Moresby on June 17.
The following day it was bombed
again and sunk.

British Socialists Support Congress

(From Our Correspondent)

LONDON, July 25.
The "New Leader" edited by Mr. Fenner Brockway says: "The Independent Labour Party responds to Congress resolution at once by recognising India's immediate right to independence. The tragedy of the whole situation is that the National Congress is as much opposed to Japanese imperialism and to Nazism as anyone on the British side. India's spokesmen logically put the view that they cannot call on the Indian people to fight for freedom, whilst they are denied freedom.

IF THEY WERE ALLOWED TO FORM A REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT, THEY WOULD CO-OPERATE IN THE STRUGGLE AGAINST JAPANESE IMPERIALISM AND NAZISM.

A SOCIALIST BRITAIN WHICH WOULD RECOGNISE INDIA'S RIGHT TO INDEPENDENCE WOULD HAVE NO DIFFICULTY IN MAKING AN ALLIANCE WITH INDIA'S REPRESENTATIVES."

WASHINGTON, July 26.
While members of the United States House of Representatives are planning informal vacations, President Roosevelt is reported to have reached the conclusion that he can take steps to curb inflation without additional legislation.

It is assumed that the President has found, after careful survey,
that he has adequate authority
under his powers as Commander-in-Chief in wartime and under the authority of Price Control and War Powers Act to deal with any situation that may develop.—

MAJESTIC

THE GOLDEN CROPS OF INDIA...

In German-occupied Europe and Japanese-occupied China, the rich golden crops are harvested by the enemy while the rightful owners starve and die. Are you going to let this happen to India, where our mainstay is agriculture? India with her huge resources is the most tempting prize of all to the enemy. Japan uses soft words to woo us into submission! But beware of those words. Resist Japan with all your might! For Japan's coming will mean starvation for your women and children.

WORLD-FAMOUS
DR. A. HAKIM
A somewhat worth noting, I was a victim of a deadly disease. It completely wrecked my health. The world
seemed to me not worth living in. I spent a lot of money
to get cured, but I tried several doctors and ha-
kim. The disease
however was not cured. It actually became worse probably due to a
wrong treatment.
But one day, I
overheard a conversation between
my friends, praising World-famous doctor and Master U. Zarina Ha-kim, M. A. Bux M.D. & T.H.A. first class Gold Medalist & M.B.B.S.H. (America).
I got interested in their talk. I determined to consult him, and oh, what a nice decision was that! He examined me carefully and assured me that my disease was chronic, could be cured within a couple of weeks. Believe me, within the first few days of his treatment my disease began to disappear as if by magic, and before two weeks were over, I experienced for the first time the thrill of youthful vigour. I will advise therefore all those who have taken other treatments but to no avail, to consult Dr. M. A. Bux, whose popularity is spread all over.

BUILD UP BIG BLOOD BANK

Col. Sokhey Says: Ten Per Cent Air Raid Victims Need Transfusion

More than one thousand public spirited citizens of Bombay have already donated their blood to the Bombay Blood Bank during the last two months. This fact was revealed by Lt.-Col. S. S. Sokhey in the course of a talk from the Bombay station of the All-India Radio on Friday last.

The occasion for the talk was the inauguration of the Blood Bank Week by the Bombay Organisation for the collection of blood, which was started two months ago by His Excellency following a handsome gift from Sir Alwyn Ezra.

Col. Sokhey also revealed the fact that one of the victims of the unfortunate nose casualty of the city recently was saved from death entirely due to blood transfusion.

Continuing his talk Col. Sokhey said that during an air-raid people receive all sorts of injuries. In a number of cases, through the operation of various causes, a peculiar state of reduction of general circulation sets in. Continued loss of blood causes the presence of shock. If this reduced blood circulation is not promptly restored to about its normal level by transfusing liberal quantities of blood death supervenes.

Ten per cent of the air-raid victims require blood transfusion, and for each casualty about 1-1/2 pints of plasma are needed. This makes about 1000 donations. This provides for only 250 casualties. This is totally inadequate. Calcutta has by now collected 15,000 donations.

We must organise to collect and process really large stocks of plasma to meet the needs, let us say, of the whole province.

THE PROCESS

Col. Sokhey then explained the process of donating blood. The process of donating blood causes no more pain than the prick of a needle. The actual time taken is no longer than a quarter of an hour. The donating of blood does not impose any restrictions as to your eating or prevent you from smoking, except that we prefer to have a donation not earlier than two hours after a meal.

Col. Sokhey stressed the fact that any blood that may be donated will not be wasted under any condition whatsoever. It will be stored in a non-perishable form and will be used sometime or the other.

URGENCY OF THE OCCASION

We have so far been spared the trials of air-raids, but this does not by any means permit us to imagine that we enjoy or will continue to enjoy permanent immunity. Let us work to make the Bombay Blood Bank rich in its stock of plasma so that it may be able to meet adequately the demands of air raids.

Every healthy individual between the ages of 18 and 60 can donate blood without any harm or discomfort to himself or herself. Well-fed people can donate blood repeatedly and, some believe, even with advantage to themselves. At each donation about 1 1/2 pint of blood is taken. The body makes up this volume in a few hours and even the red cells are restored to their normal in about a week. Well-fed people can with absolute safety give repeated donations every 6 or 8 weeks.

DISTRIBUTION OF CARDS

For convenience cards are being distributed during this week at cinemas. On these cards you can signify your willingness to donate blood. You should also say which centre will suit you to attend. There are three centres at present: the Red Cross Society Office near the Town Hall, the Blood Transfusion Centre at Swadeshi Mills Compound, New Queen's Road, and the Haffkine Institute, Parel. On the cards you should also indicate the time the day and the week which will suit you best. If you do not get one of these printed cards please drop a line to the Red Cross Transfusion Service, New Queen's Road, indicating the most convenient time for you to make a donation. You can also make your appointments by ringing up Red Cross Transfusion Service, 20723.

The Half-Column "By Dim"

According to a United Press message, Mr. Niharendu Dutt Mazumdar, M.L.A., in a statement says:

"The Government of India decided to remove the ban on the Communist Party of India and its organs following close down upon the declaration made by Sir Firoz Khan Noon, the new Defence Member on the 19th July to the effect that the Princes, landlords, communists and Communists would be mobilised to counter-act the move of Mahatma Gandhi."

Mixed Grill!

Next Friday at the New Empire comes the very outspoken film "No Greater Sin", which is a very frank treatment of a very delicate subject. It tells of America's fight against venereal disease. I am sure that it shows how in war this disease can be a sort of fifth column to reduce the power of a country's resistance. The press show is on Wednesday morning, when a few civic authorities are having a look at it along with the press. I hope that if it comes up to expectations, it will be shown widely in this country where we are still old-fashioned enough to try to pretend that such things don't exist in our midst.

INDUS FLOODS WORK HAVOC

Unprecedented Material Damage In Sind: Threat To Larkana City

KARACHI, July 26. By all accounts, material damage on an unprecedented scale has already been wrought by the Sind floods—unofficial estimates place the total loss at crores of rupees. So many details of local damage over a very wide area continue to be received that it is impossible to deignate a clear picture of the devastation caused. Not only property of all kinds, but the valuable canals themselves have suffered extensively.

Apart from the losses of houses and movables, reconstruction, etc., may require funds themselves running to crores. The danger still persists. While the river at Mithan is reported to have fallen slightly, the level at Attock has fluctuated the situation for the last few days. The main flood current after running across the three barrages, it is reported has reached Jhal campment. Cuts are being dug to the river bank in order to divert the main current towards the river again.

While this may reduce the danger to Larkana and Dadu districts, it cannot be said these areas are safe. The coming of Larkana within the danger zone brings into limelight the world famous Mohenjodaro excavations situated at Larkana. Although danger to this site is still distant, every precaution is being taken to prevent damage by water to the Mohenjodaro relics. Threat to Sukkur Barrage. If the river should change its course along with the flood water north-west of Sukkur, it is still theoretical and in any event may be expected to be temporary merely aggravating the indirect material loss for the time being. As the Premier explained the season is still to run for another six weeks, but should the river remain dry at the barrage, the worst effect may only be that there will be no rabbi crops this season. The position however, would remain fully remediable. The Congress and other bodies are throwing themselves wholeheartedly into the world of relief. An appeal to the whole of India to come to the aid of Sind is issued by Minister Nicholas Vazirani, requesting funds to be sent to the Collector of Sukkur who is organising relief in co-operation with popular bodies.—A. Bombay Will Not Fail Call Of Freedom

Nation In Bondage Cannot Help In Safeguarding Democracy

BOMBAY, Sunday. An appeal to the citizens of Bombay to be prepared for sacrifices in the cause of the country's freedom and to give the lead to the rest of India as they had done on previous occasions, was made by Mr. Shankarrao Deo, Member of the Congress Working Committee and Mr. B. G. Kher who addressed the first of the public meetings convened by the B. P. C. C. at Chowpatty this evening, to explain the Wardha resolution.

The speakers said that for three years the Congress had adhered to the policy of non-embarrassment and the only reward which Britain gave was the Cripps Mission which aimed at tightening Britain's grip over India.

For three years, the Congress had waited in vain to see signs of change in the attitude of Britain towards India. Under the circumstances, the Congress Executive could not help taking the decision it did at Wardha.

JUST CAUSE

Mr. N. G. G. T. Master, President of the B. P. C. C. who presided over the meeting referred to the various crises of the Wardha resolution and said that their criticism was unwarranted. It was agreed on all hands that Britain had not done justice to India.

Addressing the audience in Marathi, Mr. Shankarrao Deo said that there were many critics who thought that the present attitude of the Congress would lead the country to disaster. He urged these critics to realise that the Congress had always the country's interests at heart, that it was the only organisation which had sacrificed for the cause of freedom and which commanded the largest following. Gandhi had shown the greatest patience during the past three years but this had not resulted in any change of heart in the British rulers. The blame, therefore, could not be placed at the doors of the Congress. If India demanded complete freedom at this stage it was because of her consciousness that a slave nation could never render assistance to others in safeguarding democracy. The Congress was in no mood for a change of masters. It would resist Japanese or German aggression with the same tenacity with which it fought British Imperialism.

Referring to the cry raised by Communists and others that Congress-League Pact was essential, Mr. Shankarrao Deo said that everyone was prepared to talk of pacts, but no one had any concrete suggestions to make for bringing about a pact. As repeatedly pointed out by Gandhi, there was no hope of any settlement of India's internal problems so long as she remained in bondage.

Referring to the editorial comment in the "Daily Herald", the speaker said that though the Labour Party in England pretended to be a friend of India, the Indians could not forget that it was the Labour Government which was responsible for the first Ordinance Raj in India.

The struggle which lay ahead, concluded Mr. Deo, was to be strictly on non-violent lines. It was the duty of everyone to realise that freedom could never be a matter of a gift from the ruling nation.

NO ILLUSIONS

Mr. B. G. Kher who addressed the gathering in Hindustani said that the Congress had no illusions that Japan or Germany would secure India's freedom. It wanted no change of masters. The nation was prepared to fight its own battle for freedom on non-violent lines under the leadership of Gandhi. Mr. Kher assured Mr. Deo that Bombay would not fail when the nation's call came.

BE PREPARED FOR SACRIFICES

Nagindas Master's Exhortation To Citizens

BOMBAY, Sunday. Unfurling the National Flag for the first time as the President of the B.P.C.C., Mr. Nagindas T. Master urged the citizens of Bombay to be prepared for sacrifices in the name of the motherland. A grim struggle to enable the nation to achieve its goal through non-violence was to be launched. No nation could secure freedom without paying the price.

Referring to the resolution of the Congress Working Committee, Mr. Nagindas said that the utter disregard showed by Britain towards India's aspirations had driven the Congress Executive to its present decision.

The flag salutation in the morning was attended by a large number of citizens and members of the Congress Dal, a new volunteer organisation launched by the B.P.C.C. Prior to the flag hoisting, Mr. Nagindas Master inspected a rally of volunteers and was presented a guard of honour.

ONLY FREE INDIA CAN RESIST AGGRESSION

Kher's Exhortation At Matunga Meeting

A mass spinning demonstration was followed by a public meeting at the Athika Samaj Hall, Matunga, on Sunday evening. Mr.

LANGUAGE KNOWS NO RELIGIOUS BARRIERS

PATNA, July 25. "Language knew no religion and suffered from no barriers. To associate it with a certain class or community was to limit its sphere," said Maulana Zafar Ali Khan, M.L.A. (Central) presiding over the first session of the Bihar Provincial Urdu conference held to-day. "To identify Urdu with the Muslims only was the negation of reality," added the Maulana.—A. P.

B. G. Kher addressed the meeting at length. He traced the course of events which led the Congress Working Committee and Mahatma Gandhi to take the decision to launch on a mass movement for the freedom of the country. He explained the implications of the resolution and pointed out how important it was for the cause of freedom and democracy the world over that India's independence should be recognised and acted upon now.

At the background of the present decision was the tragic tales of Malaya, Singapore and Burma. What had happened in those places had deeply stirred and affected the Indian people. Those happenings had brought the conviction to them that the defence of their country was their responsibility. It was a matter of life and death to them. But that defence could not be total and effective in the hands of those whose interest in it was only that of a base for operations the loss of which could mean withdrawal to other favourable shores. The Congress and Gandhi knew that only a free India could develop the real strength of the people to resist any aggression.

Mr. Kher answered the critics of the Congress decision and pointed out how in Mahatma Gandhi Britain had a real friend. He exhorted the people to be prepared for all sacrifices and hoped that when the time for action came they would respond to the call of the country and freedom.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the South Indian Association.

Mr. C. K. Narayanswami who presided said that those who could not fall in line with the Congress movement would at least be patriotic enough to stand aside and not hinder it. He referred to the Communist Party's "People's War" slogan and said that the best test of the reality of the slogan was for that Party to lead an Indian People's Brigade to Soviet Front and see what facilities they received in that direction.

SARDAR'S CALL TO LOKSENA

AHMEDABAD, July 26. That all young men should get training in the field of rendering service to the people in emergency was the advice given by Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel addressing the members of Loksewa (volunteers enrolled for emergency) this morning.

Continuing Sardar Patel said that in free countries, this was compulsory but here in India the Government had not much interest in the work of rendering service to the people because of lack of contact between the Government and the people. Satisfactory service to the people in emergency could not be rendered by the Government if there was no co-operation from the people. There was ample room in our Loksewa organisation for Government co-operation.

He advised the volunteers to be courageous in emergency and in no case to run away in times of danger. They must be prepared to sacrifice their lives for the protection of the people and if they did so they would have learnt the first lesson in independence.

The Sardar appealed to all youngmen to enlist in the Loksewa organisation which was free from communalism.—United Press.

DETROIT.—The Police carried out raids on Saturday on six centres in Detroit and Benton harbour (Michigan) and confiscated a quantity of guns, cameras, radio sets and ammunition illegally held by German and Italian agents.

Create Conditions To Change Character Of War

STORY BEHIND CEYLON RICE PURCHASE

(From A Correspondent)

With the departure for Ceylon of Mr. M. H. Kantawalla, the former Trade Commissioner of Ceylon in India, the question of another anti-Indian drama being staged in that island comes to the forefront. Ever since Mr. M. H. Kantawalla was appointed Trade Commissioner for Ceylon in India there has been a move to oust the Indian Trade Commissioner and replace him by a Ceylonese. It may be recalled that Mr. M. H. Kantawalla is one of the senior-most members of the Ceylon Civil Service and has a brilliant record of service in Ceylon as well as in India as Trade Commissioner for Ceylon. In the past brilliant Indian like Mr. B. Las Gupta, the present Chief Executive Health Officer of the Bombay Municipality, Mr. K. D. Guha, the present Director of Industries of the C. P. Government, had no objection to the Government of Ceylon taking the hands of the Ceylonese Government as a result of the cry of "Ceylon for Ceylonese."

Since last year there has been an acute shortage of food in Ceylon and the Ceylonese Government are now trying to obtain their food supplies from India in spite of the fact that India herself feels shortage of food supplies. The Ceylonese Government began to purchase food supplies and other materials from India at a time when there was a good deal of panic in India itself and acute shortage of food was threatened in this very country. It was in these circumstances that Mr. Kantawalla, the Trade Commissioner for Ceylon, was authorised to purchase rice and other foodstuffs from India on behalf of the Ceylonese Government. It seems some misguided people from Ceylon wanted to reap the benefit of this rice purchase by the Ceylonese Government, but Mr. Kantawalla was keen to look to the interests of the Ceylonese Government. Thus some of the self-interesting Ceylonese, who could not get rice purchase contracts from the Trade Commissioner, began to clamour against him and raised a hue and cry in Ceylon against the Trade Commissioner. The intrigues in this regard have led to an enquiry into the unexplained allegations made in the State Council. The Minister of Labour, Commerce and Industry in a statement before the State Council stated that there was nothing wrong in these purchases of the Trade Commissioner, but the interested groups brought pressure upon the Government to hold an enquiry. The Minister of Labour, Commerce and Industry is a man of great abilities and is supposed to have some amount of sympathy for Indians because of his close association with Indian businessmen. He has also visited India several times and thus is one of those who want to adopt a conciliatory policy towards Indians. But the anti-Indian feeling would not give him much rest. It will, therefore, be interesting to watch the investigations that are now being carried on by the Acting-Auditor General of the Ceylonese Government in India in regard to the purchase of food-stuffs by the former Trade Commissioner.

"The question of guarantee of future independence," continued Pandit Nehru "ignores the real point at issue. While we desire independence, that by itself is not the chief issue at present. The real issue is how to meet the present situation, how to repel aggression on India and how to help China, Russia and the common cause of the Allies. It is manifest that it is not being done and will not be done effectively under the present conditions. To drift as we have drifted so long is to forget what has happened in Burma and elsewhere and to invite disaster."

Thus observed Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru in an exclusive interview to the "United Press."

He added that he did not propose to say anything in reply to the attack of the "Daily Herald" on the Congress excepting that this very attack justified completely, if justification was needed, the attitude of the Congress. It was clear that there was nothing in common between the British Labour Party and the people of India who desired not only to free India, but to free the world and did not propose to function as underlings in the British Empire.

that Russia would keep her hands off the internal affairs of the British Empire. This meant that India's freedom was no concern of Russia.

It was good that the ban against the Communist Party was lifted. The British had the knack of making quick friends. The language which Sir Reginald Maxwell used when Mr. N. M. Joshi moved his resolution in the Central Assembly for giving better treatment to the Communists in prison, was still fresh in public memory.

REACTIONARIES CALL

Referring to the criticism of the "Daily Herald", Sardar Patel said that the record of the Labour Party in England was no better than that of the other parties. When it was in power it was responsible for the arrest of Mahatma Gandhi and holding the Round Table Conference. Their leader, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, was responsible for the communal award which compelled Mahatma Gandhi to undertake the hazardous fast unto death. Even now the Labour representatives in the British Cabinet were no less reactionary than Mr. Churchill and Mr. Eden.—A. P.

"We Don't Want To Be Passive Spectators Of Disaster In India Or China"

SARDAR BLAMES CRIPPS' MISSION FOR PRESENT DECISION OF CONGRESS

ALLAHABAD, July 26. "We don't want to be passive spectators of disaster in India or China that concerns us more intimately than can concern anyone else. Therefore, it becomes essential to create conditions here and new which will change the character of the war, specially in India and give tremendous additional strength to the Allied cause. That can only be done by complete change in India, by recognising and giving effect to independence and then by co-operation as Allies between India and the United Nations in the fight against aggression. It is perfectly clear that Free India will defend itself by armed force and every other way possible. But all this is dependent upon present freedom and the vital enthusiasm that this creates among the masses."

Thus observed Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru in an exclusive interview to the "United Press."

He added that he did not propose to say anything in reply to the attack of the "Daily Herald" on the Congress excepting that this very attack justified completely, if justification was needed, the attitude of the Congress. TRADE PRICE-FIXING IN N. Y. COTTON

Technical Position Healthy

Bombay, July 26. On Friday the New York cotton market was quietly steady. At the start there was resumption of Commission House liquidation and New Orleans selling inspired by dwindling hopes of early House consideration of the full parity loan Bill and steadily improving tenor of private crop advices. Later on there was trade price fixing and local support on technical considerations.

The market opened at a decline of 5 points with October 18.50 and declined to 18.44 which was the lowest level. Later on there was improved buying and October advanced to 18.57 which was the highest level. The market closed at a net rise of 2 points to a decline of one point. Spot cotton prices advanced 3 points at 19.96c per lb.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

The New Orleans cotton futures market was quietly steady and closed at a rise of one point to a decline of 4 points. Spot cotton prices were unchanged at 18.96c per lb.

LOCAL SITUATION.

Messrs. Anandilal Podar and Co. state: On Friday, cotton continued in an unsettled condition and after a lukewarm support, fell on renewed selling especially in Jirilla. The business in A.achi and the widest parity between July branch and Jirilla January were commented upon. Such excessively high premiums for new crop staples, partly based on longer staple foreign growths, are considered by some leading consumers as misleading in valuing parity relationships. These consumers are of opinion that present annual premiums for Jirilla are partly sentimental and partly due to current abnormal local stocks in consequence of rail transport difficulties, curtailing uncountry delivery and the consequent uncertainty of the market. Such premium, such premium can hardly stand when once new crop moves uncountried; remembering that uncountried godowns are checked as with old crop stocks. The Jirilla and Jirilla January difference narrowed to Rs. 144/4. The Jirilla and Jirilla 1200 sales and October 1800 sales. The sentiment was mixed but confidence seemed wanting in view of several uncertainties. A state of confusion was evinced on the critical Russian reports from Moscow, the setback to Caucasus.

CRIPPS MISREPRESENTS MAHATMA

Total Measures To Keep India As Safe Base

BROAD HINT TO CONGRESS

"INDIA is now an essential part of the World Front against the Axis Powers. There are British, American and Chinese forces as well as Indians fighting side by side to defend India against Japan and if the obligations of the British Government to their American and Chinese allies are to be observed, we must ensure that India remains a safe base from which to operate", declares Sir Stafford Cripps broadcasting to America.

LONDON, July 26.

Broadcasting to America over the Columbia Broadcasting System, Sir Stafford Cripps, Lord Privy Seal, and Leader of the Commons said: "I have always been a firm friend of India and I have done my best in the past to work for the freedom of India. When I joined the British War Cabinet and found the British Government anxious and willing to put forward a proposal for India's Self-Government I volunteered to travel 20,000 miles to India and back to put the case directly to Indian political leaders on behalf of the British Government and people."

"OUR OFFER"

We offered the Indian people complete liberty, the moment the war was over, to devise and set up their own form of Government. We suggested the broad outlines of how they should proceed, but there was no rigidity in these suggestions. It was left open to the various religions and races to agree upon some other method. But to my regret, they neither accepted nor put forward any agreed alternative. It was not this future arrangement, however, but the immediate situation which caused the Congress Party in India to reject the proposals.

We offered representative Indian political leaders immediate office in the Viceroy's Executive Council—a body of Ministers like those who advise your President."

MAHATMA'S DEMAND

Mr. Gandhi has demanded that we should walk out of India leaving the country with its deep-rooted religious division without any constitutional form of Government and with no organized administration. The responsible Government could take such a step—least of all in the midst of war. The Muslims of whom there are at least 80 millions are deeply opposed to Hindu domination as are also tens of millions of Depressed Classes. To have agreed to the Congress Party's or to Mr. Gandhi's demands would have meant inevitable chaos and disorder. This is not merely my assertion. It is stated by Mr. Gandhi himself. "Anarchy is the only way."

VITAL FRONT

India is now an essential part of the World Front against the Axis Powers. There are British, American and Chinese forces as well as Indians fighting side by side to defend India against Japan and if the obligations of the British Government to their American and Chinese allies are to be observed, we must ensure that India remains a safe base in and from which to operate against the Japanese enemy and we cannot allow conditions to be created by any political party or leader in India which will jeopardise the safety of the United Nations' armies and air forces or the advance of our enemies to this new dangerous theatre of war. This is an obligation not only to the British and American forces in India, it is an obligation to the Indian peoples themselves. That is why your country and our country find themselves both intimately concerned with the condition of India at this moment.

Your sons as well as our sons are helping to defend India and wage war against the Japanese. Your policy as well as our policy is to defend India, but Mr. Gandhi and the Congress Party have other views.

MISREPRESENTATION

Mr. Gandhi, I have always regarded with respect as a great nationalist and religious leader, but I am bound to say, that in the present circumstances he is not showing himself to be practical and realistic. Certainly the action which he is now threatening—mass civil disobedience by his followers—is calculated to endanger both your war effort and our own and bring the greatest aid and comfort to our common enemies. Mr. Gandhi's views are not always easily defined or always consistent, but let me read a few of his recent statements:—"We do not want these Allied troops for our defence or protection. If luck favours us the Japanese may see no reason to hold the country, after the Allies have withdrawn. China perhaps would hardly appreciate this. Again Mr. Gandhi said 'American aid amounts in the end to American influence, if not American rule added to the British. If the British left India to her fate . . . probably the Japanese would leave India alone'. These are solemn words and what do all of them amount to."

A BROAD HINT

Mr. Gandhi is not prepared to wait. He would rather jeopardise freedom and the whole cause of the United Nations. He threatens the extreme of pressure in this most difficult hour to win political power for his own party. There is not the slightest doubt that other large, and powerful political parties are opposed to Mr. Gandhi's demands.

I regret profoundly that he has taken this attitude and I know that the Indian people as a whole do not support it. He may gain a measure of support for mass disobedience but for the sake of India, as well as for the cause of the United Nations it will be our duty to insist on keeping India as a safe and orderly base for our joint operations against the Japanese. Whatever steps are necessary to that end we must take fearlessly.

LIFE-LINE OF ALLIES

"Once victory is gained, India has been offered complete freedom to provide in whatever way she chooses for her own self-government. But that victory must first be gained. We cannot allow the actions of a visionary, however distinguished in his fight for freedom in the past to thwart the United Nations' drive for victory in the East. The issues are too grave for the whole world.

American, Chinese, Indian and British soldiers must not be sacrificed in their gallant struggle for the liberty of the world by a political party manoeuvring in India or any other country. It is the interests of India that are at stake as well as that of China, Britain and the United States. I am sure that we in this country can rely on you to give us your understanding your help and your support in doing whatever is necessary to maintain intact the front of the United Nations in India and reopen the lifeline of our gallant Allies the Chinese."

FREEDOM FIRST, PAKISTAN AFTERWARDS

Mahatma's Reply To Muslim League President

AHMEDABAD, July 26.

"If the Quid-e-Azam really wants a settlement, I am more than willing and so is the Congress. He will forgive me for suggesting that his reply leaves one the impression that he does not want a settlement. He wants one, why not accept the Congress President's offer that Congress and League representatives should put their heads together and never part until they have reached a settlement? Is there any flaw or want of sincerity in this offer?" writes Mahatma Gandhi in the latest "Harijan."

He adds: "I have read with attention Quid-e-Azam's reply to my article in 'Harijan.' 'Pakistan' according to him 'in a nutshell' is a demand for carving out of India a portion to be wholly treated as an independent and sovereign state." This sovereign state can conceivably go to war against the one, of which it is but yesterday a part. It can also equally conceivably make a treaty with other States. All this can certainly be had, but surely not by the willing consent of the rest.

"HE DOES NOT WANT IT BY CONSENT"

But it seems he does not want it by consent. For he says "Pakistan is an article of faith with Muslim India and we depend upon nobody except ourselves for the achievement of our goal." How is one to offer one's service in these circumstances?

But later he gives me hope, for he says, "Show your sincerity and frankness for an honourable settlement." In order to show both, I wrote the article to which the Quid-e-Azam has objected. How else is one to show sincerity and frankness except through one's action and speech or pen?

Let me state my limitations. I cannot speak as a mere Hindu, for my Hinduism includes all religions. I can speak only as an Indian. If Pakistan as defined above is an article of faith with him, indivisible India is equally an article of faith with me. Hence there is a stalemate.

But to-day there is neither Pakistan nor Hindustan. It is England. So I say to all Indians let us first convert it to the original Hindustan and then adjust all rival claims. This is surely clear. After the restoration of India to the nation, there will be no Central Government. The representatives will have to construct it. It may be one Hindustan or many Pakistans.—A.P.

ROMMEL LAYS MINEFIELDS

Lull In Desert Warfare Continues: Artillery Duels Maintained

LONDON, July 26.

Reports that Field Marshal Rommel is laying minefields in Egypt should not be taken as an indication that he is now on the defensive. Such minefields would hamper an Allied advance, but not greatly handicap an advance by Rommel.

Desert Lull Continues

CAIRO: The desert lull continues with no change in the positions. The line now runs roughly due south of Tel El Elsa (the Hill of Jesus) to the Qattara Plateau.

The targets engaged by British artillery yesterday were mainly gun positions and vehicles. The Germans are digging in wherever they can and are believed to be using disabled tanks as strong-points.

Air activities yesterday were on a reduced scale and there is nothing noteworthy to report.

Artillery Duels

To-day's Middle East joint war 'communique' states: "Land operations in all sectors yesterday were confined to patrol activities and artillery exchanges."

Air activity was on a reduced scale although our light bombers made successful attacks on enemy vehicles in the morning. Allied heavy bombers carried out successful night attacks on Tobruk Crete and the battle area.

Naval fighters shot down two range fighters attacked batteries north-west of Matruh.

Two "Junkers 88's" on reconnaissance over the Delta were attacked by our fighters. One was destroyed and the other was severely damaged.

Air activity over Malta was on a reduced scale."

Rommel On Defensive

Reuter's special correspondent with the South African forces at El Alamein writes:—"The Axis is on the defensive. Armoured car patrols and light infantry patrols sent out by the South Africans and Australians in the northern sector in the past two days reported minelaying by enemy engineers. The Allies are doing their utmost to impede this work by shell-fire across no-man's-land, which now stretches in a jagged line from a point on the coast west of El Alamein down to the Qattara Depression. Artillery duels are fought along the front several times a day."

The close co-operation between the Allied land and air forces is one of the main characteristics of

GANDHIJI ANSWERS CRITICS

BRITAIN'S CHANCE TO ACT AND PROVE HER 'BONA-FIDES'

BOMBAY, July 26.

It is no use damning me as a Dictator like Hitler. He does not argue with his co-workers, if he may be said to have any. He merely issues orders which can only be disobeyed on pain of death or worse. I argue with my friends for days. My sanction with my friends as well as self-styled enemies has ever been reason and love," writes Mahatma Gandhi under the caption "To My Critics in the 'Harijan.'"

He says:—"The critics who impute motives to the Working Committee or to me harm the cause they profess to serve. The members of the Working Committee are all seasoned servants of the nation, with full sense of their responsibility. It is no use damning me as a Dictator like Herr Hitler. He does not argue with his co-workers if he may be said to have any. He merely issues orders which can only be disobeyed on pain of death or worse. I argue with my friends for days. The members agreed when their reason was satisfied. My sanction with my friends as well as self-styled enemies has ever been reason and love."

TRAVESTY OF TRUTH

It is a travesty of truth, therefore, to compare me with Hitler or to call me Dictator in any current sense of the term. It is an equal travesty of truth to abuse the Congress by calling it a Hindu or communal organisation. It is national in the fullest sense of the term. It is a purely political organisation with which can undoubtedly be compared the Liberal Party which is without the slightest communal taint. Unfortunately to-day although it has politicians who have a record of distinguished service, it has admittedly little or no following in the country by reason of its

WITHDRAWAL OF BRITISH POWER

No body has contended that the demand for withdrawal of British power is not an inherent right of the nation, irrespective of the demand to the contrary

by those who by centuries of habit have lost the sense of freedom. It is said that it is wrong not intrinsically, but because of the Congress declaration of non-embarrassment to ask for such withdrawal at this moment.

The critics conveniently omit to mention the fact that in order to prove its 'bona fides' and to prevent the Japanese attack the Congress has agreed that, in spite of the withdrawal of the British, the Allied troops should remain in India, naturally under a treaty with the free India Government to be. So long as that Government, provisional or otherwise, has not come into being, there will be no authority to check their operations save their honour. For by declaring India free they will have absolved themselves from consulting anybody formally as they have to consult to-day members of their nomination.

FOOL-PROOF DEMAND

In this sense the declaration of independence leaves them free to adopt the military measures they may consider necessary. I know that this is an anomalous position for a free country to be in. But honesty dictates the course. As I have said, and repeat here, the Congress demand is fool-proof. Critics who are anxious to serve the Allies would do well to examine the Congress position and point out flaws. If there are any. Let me inform them that those who have come to me to understand my demand and who had serious misgivings went away convinced that it was wholly just and that if justice was not done the Congress would be right in taking action to vindicate its position.—A.P.

AFGHANS STAND FOR RECIPROCITY

PESHAWAR, July 25.

It is understood that the Afghan Government Shirkats have decided to limit imports from India to the value of their exports to this country of pistachio nuts, wool, zira and skins. Each Shirkat has been allotted an import quota. A.P.

this new battle for Egypt. In addition to their attacks on enemy supply lines, harbours and landing grounds Allied bomber and fighter squadrons take swift action against any enemy artillery positions tanks or motorised infantry reported from any army observation post or by one of our patrols.

Ground reconnaissance is speedily supplemented by army spotters. When enemy fighters come within range they are helped on their way back to their own territory by alert South African anti-aircraft gunners for whose marksmanship both German and Italian pilots show a warm respect by keeping at a safe height.

Axis Prepared For Reverses

ZURICH:—German opinion is very conscious that the African Corps in Egypt is exposed to extraordinarily violent British attacks and without a chance of rest, according to the Berlin correspondent of the "Tribune Le Geneva." British tanks and armoured cars damaged during Rommel's advance and repaired in Egypt are reappearing at the front, he says. The strength of the British fortifications is admitted. The general tenor suggests that Axis opinion is prepared for reverses in Egypt.—Reuter.
